

Seagrass Ecosystems:

Name: _____

Date: _____

Seagrass, coral reefs, and mangroves are all

found in the Florida Keys.

They provide a place for organisms to interact .

There are _____ main types

(how many?)

of seagrass in the Florida Keys.

REEF RELIEF

Two of the seagrasses found in the Florida Keys are named after the organisms that _____ them! These species are the _____ grass and _____ grass.

Seagrass is important because it gives sea stars and other organisms a _____.