

REEF RELIEF

Match the term with the definition.

- A. Marine Protected Area
- B. No Take Zone
- C. Research Natural Area
- D. Ecological Reserve
- E. Sanctuary Preservation Area
- F. National Wildlife Refuge
- G. Special Use Area
- H. Wildlife Management Area
- I. State Park
- J. National Park

Answer	Definition	Answer	Definition
	Areas selected to be representative and special ecosystems. To be preserved in a natural condition.		An umbrella term for any area on or near the marine environment that has defined protections.
	An area of land owned and protected by a U.S state due to its natural beauty or historic importance.		Area set aside only for research related activities.
	Area set aside for a specific use such as research, education, restoration, and monitoring.		Protected public land set aside to conserve wildlife. Managed by USFWS.
	An area where the removal of anything is prohibited.		An area of natural, historical, or scientific importance set aside and maintained by a national government.
	Smaller areas where certain activities are restricted and regulated.		Lands managed for both recreation and conservation.

